Thursday, October 19

4:00–6:00 pm	Registration	Tomlinson Room
5:45 pm	Dinner	Clements Room
6:45 pm	General Session 1	Clements Room Speaker—Bishop Tim McCaleb Stewardship in Evil Times —Christians often think of stewardship as faithfully managing God’s blessings when the windows of heaven are open. But what about times of war, famine, drought, or national collapse? This session will look at stewardship during economic scarcity and evil times.
7:45 pm	Break
8:00 pm	General Session 2	Clements Room Speakers—Bishop Paul & Barbara Holt The Goldfish Principle —The Holt’s were goldfish people. No matter how much money they brought home, they always found ways to spend it. They slowly learned how to manage money God’s way and it changed their lives. In this session, they will share those lessons with you.
9:00 pm	Closing Instructions

Friday Morning, October 20

8:00 am	Breakfast	Clements Room
9:00 am	General Session 3	Clements Room Speaker—Bishop Jeffrey White Stewardship or Ownership —Biblical stewardship calls us to manage what belongs to God. We all want to hear, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” This session gives practical ways to excel as a steward without assuming the role of owner.
9:50 am	Break
10:15 am	Workshop 1	Murray Room Jan Couch Finishing Well, Saving and Investing for Retirement —Scripture supports saving, beginning with Joseph, saving in the fat years for the lean years. Just because some have abused the message of the blessings of prosperity for their own personal greed, is not a reason to stop teaching the blessings of sound biblical stewardship which results in “plenty” and a plan for the leftovers.
	Workshop 2	Clements Room Michael Luithle Online Giving Options for Churches —Opening the digital door of offerings! In a constantly changing landscape of online services, moving to online giving can be a daunting task. This workshop will not only talk about costs and considerations but will also give insight into the ever-changing range of services to help you make the best decision for your church.
11:00 am	Break
11:10 am	General Session 4	Clements Room Speaker—Bishop Daniel Felipe Building Trustworthy Ministries —In this session, Bishop Daniel Felipe will explore a fundamental ingredient for healthy biblical stewardship: TRUST. Contrary to popular belief, trust is not simply a feeling towards individuals or institutions. Trust, or the lack thereof, is a rational conclusion resulting from observed behaviors. This session will delve into the practical elements of trustworthiness and how we can harness them to build ministries that people trust.
12:00 pm	Lunch	Clements Room
